

Ready for a Market Rebound, Dealers Look Beyond Top Tier for Trading Partners

2018 Greenwich Leaders: U.S. Fixed Income

August 9, 2018

Executive Summary:

Fixed-income dealers that invested in their businesses over the past year are positioning themselves to capitalize on an anticipated pickup in market volatility and investor activity. Based on Q2 earnings, a number of firms are starting to see that strategy pay off, as fixed-income trading revenues rebound after a number of challenging quarters. Having sought to wring out every possible efficiency from their platforms, those dealers that have also maintained a strong commitment to a client-centric franchise are well-positioned to compete fiercely for the business of the market's largest institutional investors.

Methodology:

Between February and May 2018, Greenwich Associates conducted 966 interviews across 514 institutions with investors active in fixed income in the United States. Interview topics included trading and research activities and preferences, product and dealer use, service provider evaluations, market trend analysis, and investor compensation.

The data contained in the Document is based upon a particular bank's scope, which reflects a bank's data submission, business structure, and sales revenue Reporting methodology. As a result, any data contained in the Document may not be directly comparable to data presented to another bank. For franchise benchmarking, Crisil Coalition Greenwich has implemented equal ranking logic on aggregate results i.e., when sales revenues are within 5% of at least one competitor ahead, a tie is shown and designated by = (where actual ranks are shown). Entity level data has no equal ranking logic implemented and therefore, on occasion, the differences between rank bands can be very close mathematically.

The data in this Document may reflect the views reported to Crisil Coalition Greenwich by the research participants. Interviewees may be asked about their use of and demand for financial products and services and about investment practices in relevant financial markets. Crisil Coalition Greenwich compiles the data received, conducts statistical analysis and reviews for presentation purposes to produce the final results.
