2020 Greenwich Leaders: Foreign Exchange Services - European Corporates

April 16, 2020

Executive Summary:

Q2 2020

Despite the deep integration of European financial markets, European corporate FX remains a country-based business, at least to some extent. In Germany, for example, three banks—Commerzbank, Deutsche Bank and HSBC—tie for the lead in European Corporates FX Market Penetration and the title of 2020 Greenwich Share Leaders<sup>SM</sup>.

HSBC also ranks atop the list of 2020 Greenwich Share Leaders for United Kingdom corporates, but here is followed by a trio of other British banks—Barclays, which ranks second, and NatWest Markets and Lloyds, which tie for third place in terms of market penetration.

Italy has its own list of 2020 Greenwich Share Leaders—with Intesa Sanpaolo and UniCredit tied at the top, followed by BNP Paribas—as does the Netherlands, where ING Bank, Rabobank and ABN Amro rank first, second and third, respectively.

Methodology:

Greenwich Associates conducted interviews with 2,300 users of foreign exchange globally, of which 1,415 are top-tier accounts, at large corporations and financial institutions on market trends and their relationships with their dealers. To be considered top tier, a firm must be a central bank, a government agency, a hedge fund, a fund manager, an FT100 global firm, a firm with reported trading volume of more than $10 billion, or a firm with reported sales of more than $5 billion. Interviews were conducted in North America, Latin America, Europe, Asia, and Japan between September and December 2019.

The data contained in the Document is based upon a particular bank's scope, which reflects a bank's data submission, business structure, and sales revenue Reporting methodology. As a result, any data contained in the Document may not be directly comparable to data presented to another bank. For franchise benchmarking, Crisil Coalition Greenwich has implemented equal ranking logic on aggregate results i.e., when sales revenues are within 5% of at least one competitor ahead, a tie is shown and designated by = (where actual ranks are shown). Entity level data has no equal ranking logic implemented and therefore, on occasion, the differences between rank bands can be very close mathematically.

The data in this Document may reflect the views reported to Crisil Coalition Greenwich by the research participants. Interviewees may be asked about their use of and demand for financial products and services and about investment practices in relevant financial markets. Crisil Coalition Greenwich compiles the data received, conducts statistical analysis and reviews for presentation purposes to produce the final results.
