

Asia's Regional and Large Local Banks Are on the Rise

March 12, 2024

Executive Summary:

In 2023, nearly 25% of large corporates in Asia named a large local bank as one of their banking providers, up from roughly 20% in 2018

Just five years ago, only about 1 in 5 large Asian corporates named a large local Asian bank as one of their corporate banking providers. In 2023, that share approached one quarter. The advance of regional banks has been equally noteworthy. In 2018, only 9% of large Asian corporates used one of Asia's regional banks for corporate banking. In 2023 that share hit 13%.

Methodology:

From August to December 2023, Coalition Greenwich conducted 954 interviews in large corporate banking and 1,177 in large corporate cash management at companies in China, Hong Kong, India, Indonesia, Laos, Malaysia, the Philippines, Singapore, South Korea, Taiwan, Thailand, and Vietnam. Subjects covered included product demand, quality of coverage, and capabilities in specific product areas.

Our suite of analytics and insights encompass all key performance metrics and drivers: market share, revenue performance, client relationship share and quality, operational excellence, return on equity, behavioral drivers, and industry evolution.

The data contained in the Document is based upon a particular bank's scope, which reflects a bank's data submission, business structure, and sales revenue Reporting methodology. As a result, any data contained in the Document may not be directly comparable to data presented to another bank. For franchise benchmarking, Crisil Coalition Greenwich has implemented equal ranking logic on aggregate results i.e., when sales revenues are within 5% of at least one competitor ahead, a tie is shown and designated by = (where actual ranks are shown). Entity level data has no equal ranking logic implemented and therefore, on occasion, the differences between rank bands can be very close mathematically.

The data in this Document may reflect the views reported to Crisil Coalition Greenwich by the research participants. Interviewees may be asked about their use of and demand for financial products and services and about investment practices in relevant financial markets. Crisil Coalition Greenwich compiles the data received, conducts statistical analysis and reviews for presentation purposes to produce the final results.
