2023 Asian Corporate Finance Research

April 5, 2024

Executive Summary:

This report provides detailed information from Asia-based companies. Topics covered include:

- Within Asia overall, large local and regional banks are on the upswing narrowing the gap with global banks
- Focusing on Cash Management corporates in Asia continue to diversify their relationships, particularly in Southeast Asia
- Beyond pricing, customer service and digital continue to drive selection
- Banks' platform features that enable smooth BAU operations are key to a corporate's good overall digital experience
- For corporates, real time payments and reconciliation solutions are priorities, driven by their customer behavior and regulations
- Banks remain supportive in helping clients achieve their ESG targets

Methodology:

From August 2023 through December 2023, Coalition Greenwich conducted 954 interviews in large corporate banking and 1177 interviews in large corporate cash management at Asia-based companies with revenues which are generally above USD$500 million per year.

Participants were asked about market trends and their relationships with their banks. Interviews were mostly completed via phone, typically with key decision makers for corporate banking services.

The Document is not an investment analysis or research and is not subject to regulatory or legal obligations on the production of, or content of, investment analysis or research.

The data contained in the Document is based upon a particular bank's scope, which reflects a bank's data submission, business structure, and sales revenue Reporting methodology. As a result, any data contained in the Document may not be directly comparable to data presented to another bank. For franchise benchmarking, Crisil Coalition Greenwich has implemented equal ranking logic on aggregate results i.e., when sales revenues are within 5% of at least one competitor ahead, a tie is shown and designated by = (where actual ranks are shown). Entity level data has no equal ranking logic implemented and therefore, on occasion, the differences between rank bands can be very close mathematically.

The data in this Document may reflect the views reported to Crisil Coalition Greenwich by the research participants. Interviewees may be asked about their use of and demand for financial products and services and about investment practices in relevant financial markets. Crisil Coalition Greenwich compiles the data received, conducts statistical analysis and reviews for presentation purposes to produce the final results.
